While it is not believed that this bill will pass, it is felt that it presents certain security implications on which your comments are desired.

1. This Bill and HR 5204 have similar provisions. Both Bills propose to amend Public Law 587 by placing political subdivisions of the States and Territories in the same status as the States and Territories now have in that Law.

2. In the event that Public Law 587 and the proposed amendments are applied to this Agency it will be necessary to seek an exemption or a secure method of compliance to avoid identification of a large segment of CIA personnel to the tax authorities.
